Support for BACWA's Air Issues and Regulations Committee

Introduction

The Bay Area Clean Water Agencies (BACWA) is a regional organization created by a joint powers agreement among the five largest wastewater treatment agencies in the San Francisco Bay Area. BACWA represents Bay Area wastewater agencies by undertaking relevant scientific and technical studies and research, and by participating in the development of National, State, and Regional policies. BACWA has several committees that provide a venue for our member agencies to meet and discuss issues of common importance.

One of BACWA's key committees is the Air Issues and Regulations (AIR) Committee. Over the years, the AIR Committee has updated Bay Area POTWs on important air quality and climate change issues. The committee shares information, develops comprehensive compliance programs, and forms solid relationships with each other and with our regulatory agencies. Past activities of the AIR committee can be viewed on the AIR committee website: <http://bacwa.org/committees/air-issues-regulations-committee-air/>

Two of the AIR Committee's primary goals are to promote relationships with regulatory agencies, such as the Bay Area Air Quality Management District (BAAQMD), and to lead BACWA's initiative to monitor and influence climate adaptation policies in the Bay Area and California. The AIR committee has proactively assisted in the development of regulatory programs by ensuring that they are based on good science and are physically and financially feasible for our public utilities. The committee represents "one voice" to the regulatory agencies, speaking on behalf of the POTWs in the Bay Area, and public utilities statewide have benefited from our efforts.
